

TNNS Pro Announces partnership with She's Empowered Sports

New York, NY (Oct 1, 2021) – TNNS Pro has entered into a partnership with She's Empowered Sports (SES). The collaboration originated from building a future for sports, and will help both parties to bring high value and new experiences to the world with a global token system.

She's Empowered Sports (SES) is the intersection of athletic development and leadership which teach with intention and provide an atmosphere for players to be seen and heard, while also empowering them to create their own space to demonstrate excellence.

"She Empowered Sports believes in the vision that TNNS has to create opportunities for athletes through their token. Not only does it provide educational learning experiences around crypto and financial literacy but it also gives our club the chance to reward our athletes with something of true value." said Courtney Clements, former WNBA player and one of the founders of She's Empowered Sports (SES).

"I am so pleased that we have now partnered with She's Empowered Sports (SES) and the former WNBA player, Courtney Clements. SES uses basketball as a platform to instill character, confidence, and leadership in female youth athletes on and off court. We hope we can complement SES' efforts to empower the next generation of leader." said Tsolak Gevorkian, the CEO of TNNS Pro.
